Ranked the 7th Most Legendary Restaurant in the World
by TasteAtlas

since 1879

Stavropoleos Street, no. 5, Sector 3, Bucharest

THE STORY

A symbolic restaurant for the Old Town and all of Bucharest, the story of Caru' cu Bere began in 1879, when the brewery "La Carul cu Bere" was established at Calea Victoriei No. 2, at the intersection with Franceză Street. It was founded by Ion Cabașanu from Transylvania and managed with the help of his nephews, Ion and Gheorge Mircea, who later brought their younger brother, Nicolae Mircea, to join them.

Eighteen years later, on September 25, 1897, Nicolae Mircea purchased the site at 5 Stavropoleos Street, the future location of what is now known as Caru' cu Bere, the most famous restaurant in Bucharest's Old Town.

In 1948, the premises at 5 Stavropoleos Street were fully taken over by the new political regime and remained under state ownership until 1999. That year, the descendants of founder Nicolae Mircea succeeded in reclaiming the building.

Seven years later, in 2006, Bucharest's Old Town regained one of its most important symbols with the reopening of Caru' cu Bere, in an operational partnership with City Grill.

For six years, the restaurant won "Best Romanian Specialty Restaurant" at the Food & Bar Awards and, for seven years, at the Horeca Awards.

AMBIANCE

The restaurant where George Coşbuc, Barbu Delavrancea, Demi Moore, and the Rolling Stones once "shared a table."

Today, over 2,500 guests indulge daily in traditional Romanian dishes and house-made beer crafted from a unique recipe. For many, Caru' cu Bere is the top choice when seeking a restaurant in the Old Town where they can satisfy their hunger, quench their thirst, and enjoy socializing - whether they are locals or tourists from across the country and around the globe. Foreign tourists make up more than a third of the daily visitors to the brewery, as Caru' cu Bere is not merely an Old Town restaurant. It is a place where they can enjoy a meal and discover and admire the lost history of Romania's capital city.

The historically rich ambiance, colorful stained-glass windows, and solid wood decor all contribute to the incomparable charm of this venue.

SERVICES AND OFFERINGS

This venue ranks among the top restaurants included in tourist itineraries, making Caru' cu Bere the perfect choice for foreign visitors seeking an authentic Romanian experience.

Located in the heart of Bucharest's Old Town, Caru' cu Bere offers a diverse menu rich in culinary tradition and history, reimagined with contemporary touches by its team of professional chefs.

The house beer, brewed using recipes unchanged since 1879, is one of the restaurant's treasures. It enhances the authenticity of the dining experience, which also features artistic performances ranging from waltzes to cimbalom music.

BEHIND THE SCENES...

Caru' cu Bere is the heart of both old and new Bucharest, and at its core is the dedicated team whose lives revolve around its walls, steeped in mystery and history.

From Nea Ion, who has been working at Caru' cu Bere for over 50 years and served Robert Kennedy in 1974, to the family of over 200 staff members, including its brand manager of more than 12 years, everyone contributes to the restaurant being called the "crown jewel."

"Caru' cu Bere stands as a beacon of gastronomy, architectural beauty, and balance, alongside a handful of establishments from the interwar period." – Anonymous Client

"Over 110 years ago, diners sat at tables near George Coșbuc, Octavian Goga, or Barbu Delavrancea. Since 2006, the tables of Caru' cu Bere have hosted Rolling Stones members, Demi Moore, and Japan's crown prince, who enjoyed traditional dishes like sarmale, mititei, Pleșcoi sausages, and the house specialty: pork knuckle with cabbage." – Ziarul Financiar

EVENTS

An event at Caru' cu Bere is first and foremost a culinary experience. The nostalgia of traditional recipes, seasoned with modern twists, leaves a lasting impression on guests.

Every city is said to have its soul, and Bucharest is no exception. Its soul comes alive most authentically at Caru' cu Bere, the ideal venue for hosting charming and distinctive private or corporate events.

The restaurant offers two halls:

- Main Hall: Seating capacity of 350 seats
- The Cellar - Guilds Cellar: Seating capacity of 150 seats
- Terrace - Seating capacity of 250 seats

Each event unfolds as a story, a cherished moment to share with loved ones, where past and present weave together in timeless harmony.

The image shows the interior of the Hanu' lui Manuc Restaurant. The space is characterized by its arched wooden ceiling and white walls. A large, vertical floral arrangement of white and pink flowers hangs from the ceiling on the left side. The floor is made of light-colored wood. Several wooden tables are set with white tablecloths, glassware, and plates. The chairs have a woven backrest. The overall atmosphere is warm and traditional.

HANU' LUI MANUC RESTAURANT®

since 1808

Franceză Street, no. 62-64, Sector 3, Bucharest

THE STORY

Hanu' lui Manuc was built in 1808 by the Armenian merchant Manuc Mirzaian on land that once belonged to the Royal Court.

It has witnessed much history, including hosting Russian and Turkish plenipotentiaries who negotiated the 1812 Treaty of Bucharest, ending a six-year war. During Manuc Bei's lifetime, it was the most well-organized inn in Bucharest.

After his death and that of his wife, under the mismanagement of uninterested and inexperienced trustees, the inn's fame diminished somewhat. Yet, it endured heroically and remains today the oldest and most traditional surviving inn in Europe.

Housed in a historic building, Hanu' lui Manuc blends traditional and modern cuisine and design, promising to carry its long history forward.

The oldest inn of caravaners in Europe
since 1808

AMBIANCE

In a setting reminiscent of the caravanserais of a gone era, the inn is a truly unique Bucharest restaurant, standing out in the city's culinary landscape, especially when the urban hustle becomes overwhelming.

Strategically located in the heart of the marketplace, right in the Old Town and steps away from Unirii Square, Hanu' lui Manuc honors its status as a princely inn.

The most captivating stories of Little Paris have always been born in the city center, but perhaps nowhere more vividly than on the streets of Lipscani.

Every corner tells a story, paying homage to history and modern elegance, thanks to recent renovations by City Grill.

SERVICES AND OFFERINGS

Hanu' lui Manuc is no ordinary Bucharest restaurant. For two centuries, the only functional traditional inn in Europe has been at the heart of the city's pulse, serving as a restaurant, hotel, café, wine cellar, performance venue, and even a tourist attraction included in various sightseeing tours.

Its unique architecture, the sophisticated social events hosted here, the traditional dishes enjoyed by guests, and the controversial historical events that took place within its walls have made Hanu' lui Manuc a key tourist landmark in Bucharest. Not long ago, it stood as an elegant and renowned gathering spot of the city's past.

The dishes harmonize beautifully with the ambiance, offering a true taste of the Romanian spirit on a plate. The artistic program, featuring professional singers, instrumentalists, and dancers, is yet another gift that Hanu' lui Manuc offers to those who step through its doors.

BEHIND THE SCENES...

Hanu' lui Manuc is a true cultural gem, supported by a team of over 70 people who work hard to provide an authentic experience. The director and management team preserve and even exceed the historical inn's success, as it once welcomed esteemed guests, from ambassadors to presidents, who enjoyed unique traditional dishes in a setting that separates two worlds: the bustling streets outside and the serene inn courtyard inside.

With principles like fairness, integrity, and leading by example, both the location's director and the rest of the management team succeed in honoring and even surpassing the success that the inn enjoyed during the lifetime of Manuc Bei and his wife in the 18th century. Ambassadors, presidents, and many distinguished guests have sat at these tables and balconies, savoring unique dishes in Bucharest after passing through the passageway that seems to divide two worlds – the one outside, in perpetual motion, and the one within the inn courtyard, calm and welcoming.

"Perhaps many believe that Hanu' lui Manuc is just another establishment, a forgotten city gem that has begun to deteriorate. But this inn is much more than that; it is everything a person could wish for: a warm, lively, charming place with an incredible history and a source of pride for our country." - Anonymous Client

The inn's elegant halls, originally created at Manuc's request, now provide a charming venue for hosting the most beautiful and memorable events: weddings, christenings, anniversaries, private parties, or corporate gatherings.

- Hanu' lui Manuc offers a variety of spaces:
- The Courtyard Garden – Seating capacity: 700 seats
 - The Wine Cellar – Seating capacity: 200 seats
 - The Voivodal Hall – Seating capacity: 90 seats
 - The Inn Hall – Seating capacity: 60 seats
 - The Restaurant – Seating capacity: 170 seats
 - The Veranda – Seating capacity: 40 seats
 - The Manuc Bistro – Seating capacity: 60 seats
 - The Veranda Bistro – Seating capacity: 70 seats

The dishes reflect the inn's resilience to change, the diversity of experiences it has hosted, and the warmth with which it has embraced countless histories, flavors, and personalities.

Pescarus®

since 1938

Pescăruș Alley, no. 1, Sector 1, Bucharest

THE STORY

Pescăruș Restaurant was established in 1938 in interwar Bucharest, along the shore of Herastrau Lake. The location was conceived by Horia Creangă, a renowned architect and the nephew of the famous writer Ion Creangă, along with architect Haralamb Georgescu.

Two years later, the restaurant became state-owned, quickly becoming a favorite among party members and notable figures of the era. One of its most loyal patrons was Gheorghe Gheorghiu-Dej, then Secretary General of the Romanian Communist Party.

After the Revolution, Pescăruș faced deterioration, further complicated by its status as a historic monument, which made restoration efforts challenging.

The restaurant was revitalized in 2015 when City Grill Group acquired and modernized it, transforming the space into a venue exuding elegance, luxury, and a modern lakeside ambiance.

In 2022, the restaurant received the award for "Best Modern Romanian Cuisine" at the Horeca Awards.

AMBIANCE

With a surface area of 1,400 square meters and a capacity of over 1,000 seats, Pescăruș Restaurant is an iconic destination in the northern area of Bucharest, blending nearly 80 years of history with the contemporary spirit of modern Bucharest gastronomy.

In its new design configuration, Pescăruș Restaurant transforms into a space with a unique and emblematic contemporary design, ideal not only for discovering exquisite flavors but also for hosting corporate or private events.

With the aim of preserving the memory of the good times that tie this location to its past, architect Mihai Popescu created a design that is simple yet sophisticated, maintaining the natural lines of the landscape along the shores of Herăstrău Lake. Deliberately avoiding modern or futuristic design elements, the location has been harmoniously integrated into its historical context.

SERVICES AND OFFERINGS

The menu is a blend of creativity and culinary technique inspired by the contemporary gastronomic habits of Bucharest locals, featuring numerous Mediterranean and seafood dishes, as well as savory meat-based dishes and modern desserts.

For certain dishes, the cooking process is completed in front of the guest, offering a delightful spectacle that is both culinary and visual.

For even more unique experiences, the restaurant organizes themed events, including Wine and Dine, a concept centered on showcasing the finest selections of wines, perfectly paired with dishes prepared by the restaurant's team of chefs.

The terrace, lush with greenery that remains vibrant year-round, provides a bright and inviting space, ideal for any meal or outing, whether intimate or for large groups. The location is also included in the itineraries of tourist groups.

BEHIND THE SCENES...

Born in 1939 and reborn in 2015, Restaurant Pescăruș, once the favorite spot of Gheorghiu-Dej, remains a serene escape from urban chaos - vibrant both day and night. Today, it is an oasis of relaxation, lush with greenery year-round, and the perfect venue for some of the most memorable parties in Bucharest.

Behind every spectacular and flavorfull dish, every colorful cocktail, and every evergreen plant, stands a dedicated team of over 100 people. Led by the location's manager, a member of the City Grill Group for over 21 years, the team operates daily under the principle that people come first, above all else.

A testament to this is an individual who, alongside the celebration of the Group's 20th anniversary, marks 44 years of service at Pescăruș. Still serving as a waiter, his eyes have witnessed all of the restaurant's transformations and shared in its journey through time.

"Restaurant Pescăruș - a special place, full of magic and delicate flavors. An oasis of tranquility blended with seafood, traditional, and international aromas. Violin music that soothes the heart. It's worth escaping the everyday routine to indulge with loved ones in a dreamy setting." – Anonymous Customer

- Orangery no. 3: 110 seats
- Pergola Salon: 80 seats

OPREA SOARE HOUSE

since 2009

Poenaru Bordea Street, no . 2, Sector 4, Bucharest

THE STORY

Hanu' Berarilor – Oprea Soare House is a gem of Romanian architecture, created by the renowned architect Petre Antonescu in 1914. Designed for Dumitru Oprea Soare, one of Bucharest's wealthiest merchants of the time, the building is a listed historic monument due to its artistic significance. Antonescu's works, including the Oprea Soare House, draw inspiration from Brâncovenesc architecture, transforming its style into a hallmark of Neo-Romanian architecture, intended as monuments in themselves.

Later inherited by Ștefan Soare and his wife, daughter of the prominent champagne producer Mott, the house was confiscated by the communist authorities in 1950 and converted into a wine cellar restaurant in the 1970s. After 1989, it was sold to investors who transformed it into a hotel-restaurant-casino, leading to minor damages due to structural alterations.

In 2009, the building was acquired by City Grill Group. Restoration work began in 2015, with restaurant design by architect Mihai Popescu, blending the building's historical character with modern touches.

"Hanu' Berarilor Casa Oprea Soare is the custodian of Romanian cuisine, where history and gastronomy come together." – ProTv Journalist

"Casa Oprea Soare is among the list of 'private buildings demonstrating that a distinctly national civic architecture can seamlessly meet modern needs: light, hygiene, and comfort.'" – Alexandru Lepadatru (historian and politician)

ELENA LUPESCU HOUSE

Pache Protopopescu Boulevard, no. 51, Sector 2, Bucharest

THE STORY

Another historical monument managed and restored by the City Grill Group, Elena Lupescu House, dates back to 1925 and is associated with Elena Lupescu, the great love of King Carol II.

This house was originally built as a residence, though it features a grand honor hall at its center, spanning two levels and designed to serve as a ballroom or banquet hall.

In its original form, the house included a space designated for an orchestra. On the ground floor, around this central hall, there are four spaces functioning as reception salons (dining rooms). At Hanu' Berarilor, you are immersed in the between the wars atmosphere, from the moment you step inside. The design combines the aristocratic air of a ballroom with the relaxed spirit of a brewery, making it an ideal setting for family outings, gatherings with colleagues, or time spent with friends.

Its impressive architecture, with refined details and opulent interiors, invites you to step into another era, one where elegance and sophistication were part of everyday life. In this historic and charming setting, guests discover not only delicious food and fine drinks but also a warm and friendly atmosphere that leaves a lasting impression on their hearts.

The delivery service covers the main areas of Bucharest and can be accessed through both proprietary websites and delivery apps, especially via the OUT4FOOD group application.

The menus offer a wide variety of traditional Romanian dishes, grills, salads, desserts, and beverages. Each restaurant in the group has its own specialties available for delivery, maintaining the culinary specifics of each location.

The packaging is designed to keep the food warm and fresh for as long as possible. Customer feedback is important, and services are constantly adapted based on this input to improve the delivery experience.

City Grill Family is the family-style meal service that saves you time, allowing you to enjoy your family and other activities, offering high-quality dishes with the same taste as home-cooked meals.

Part of City Grill's service portfolio, the Family division naturally arose from the need of Bucharest residents and those in nearby areas for a warm, healthy meal that satisfies the tastes of the entire family.

The food is prepared cleanly, without additives, and is fresh. The pot meals are made from locally sourced ingredients. Many recipes are already well-known from City Grill locations.
